

Balancing Access, Use and Environmental Stewardship

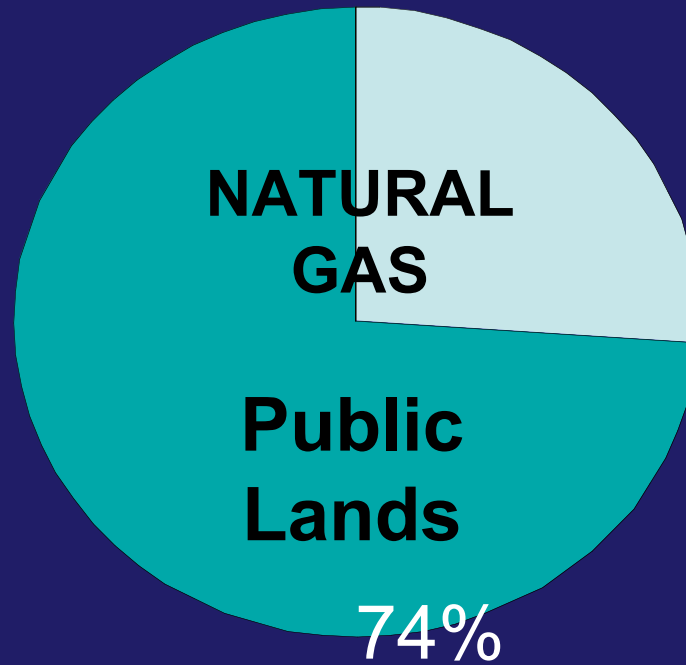

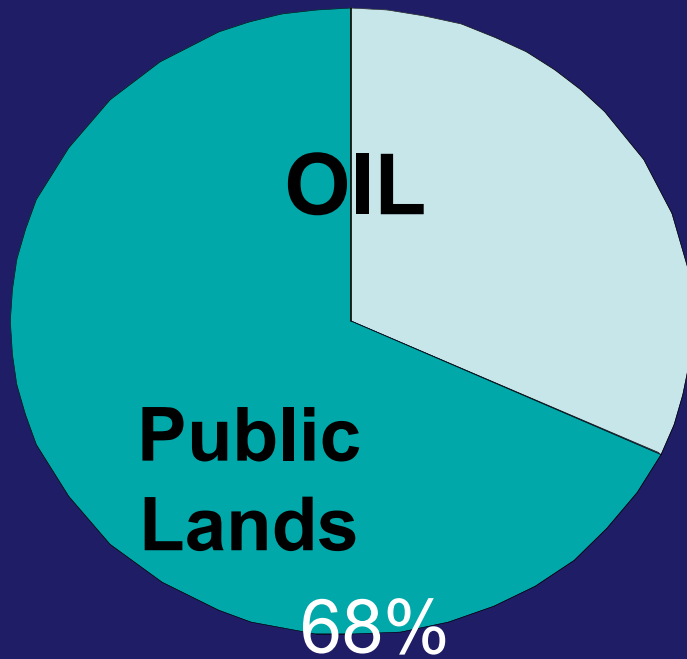

Utah State Office

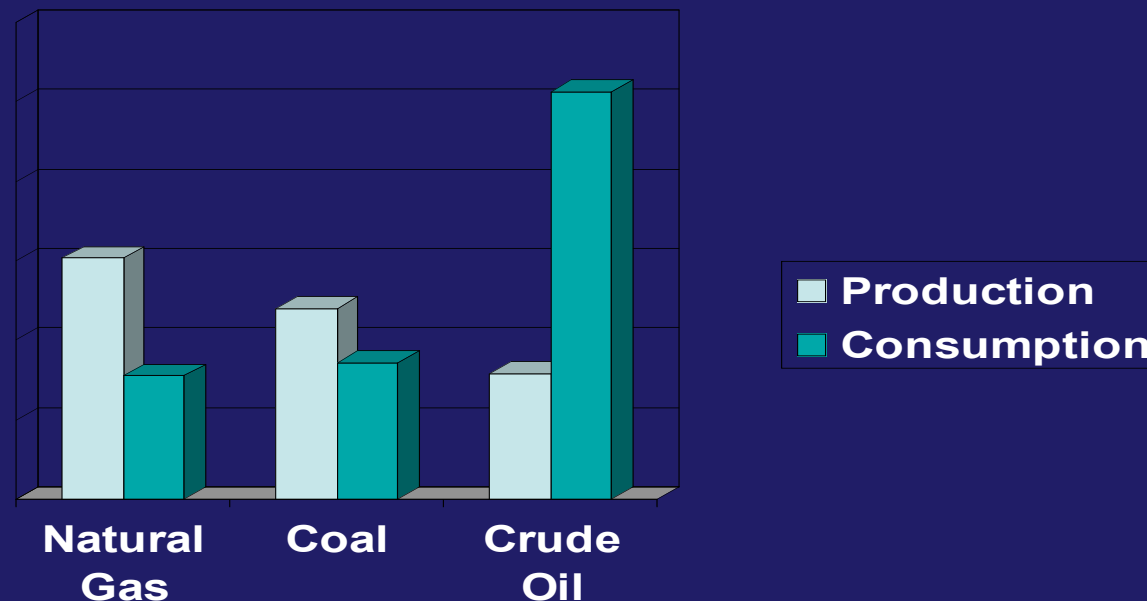

Bureau of Land Management

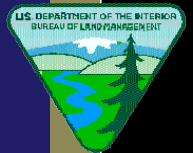

Oil and Gas Reserves on Public Lands

Utah is important to meeting regional energy demands

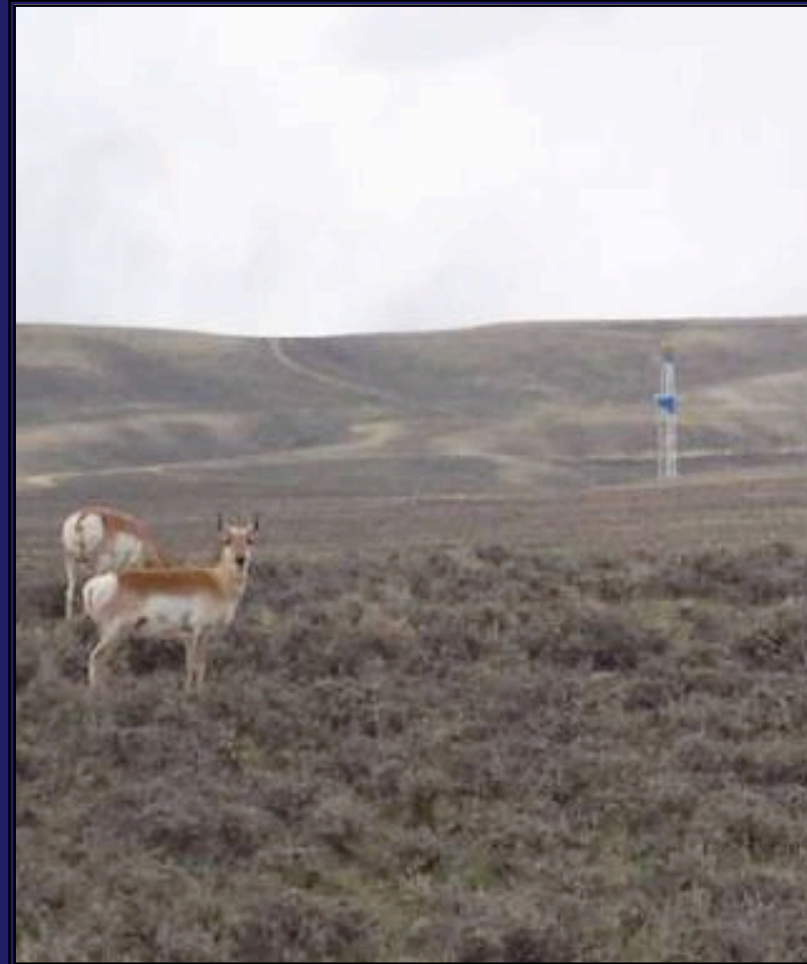

- Utah is a net exporter of both coal and natural gas.
- However, the state must import significant quantities of crude oil.

The Environment and Energy Can Coexist

BLM

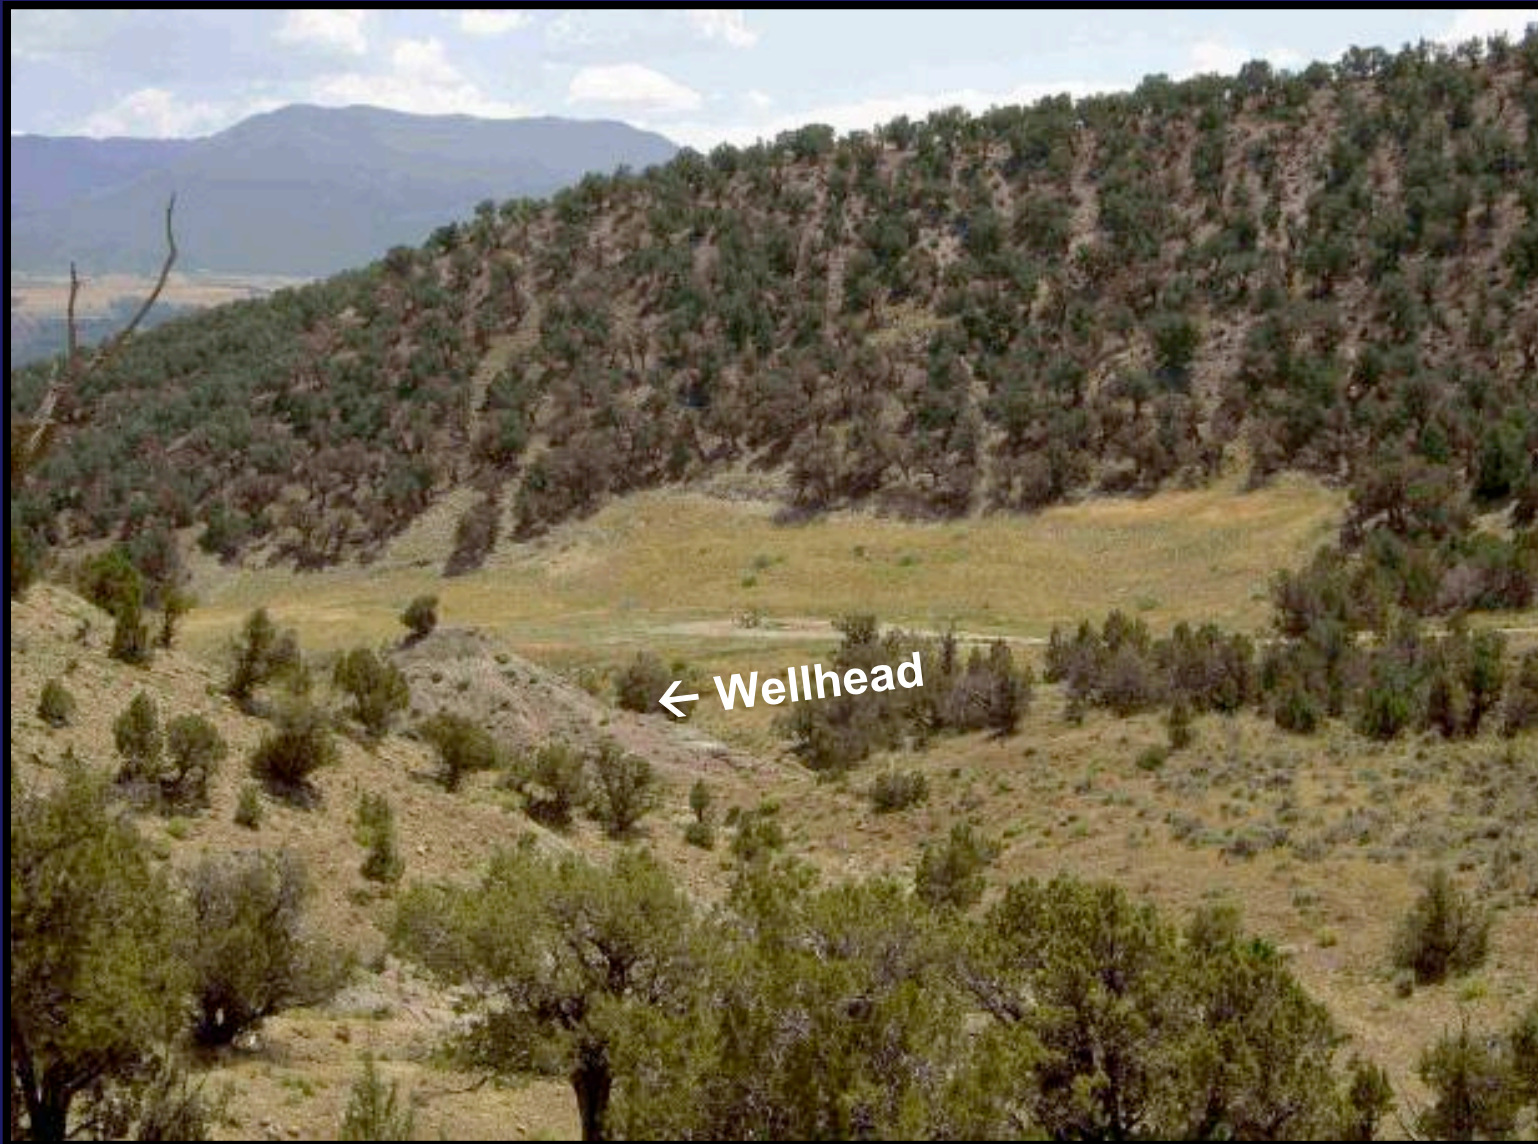

Utah State Office

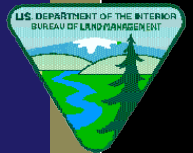

Energy Development Can Be Done Right

BLM

Utah State Office

- Protect special places
- Vital role in oil and gas development
- Tackling the challenges

Special Places in Utah

BLM

Utah State Office

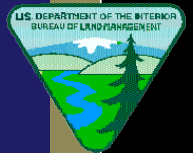

Interdisciplinary Team

BLM

Utah State Office

BMPs in Action

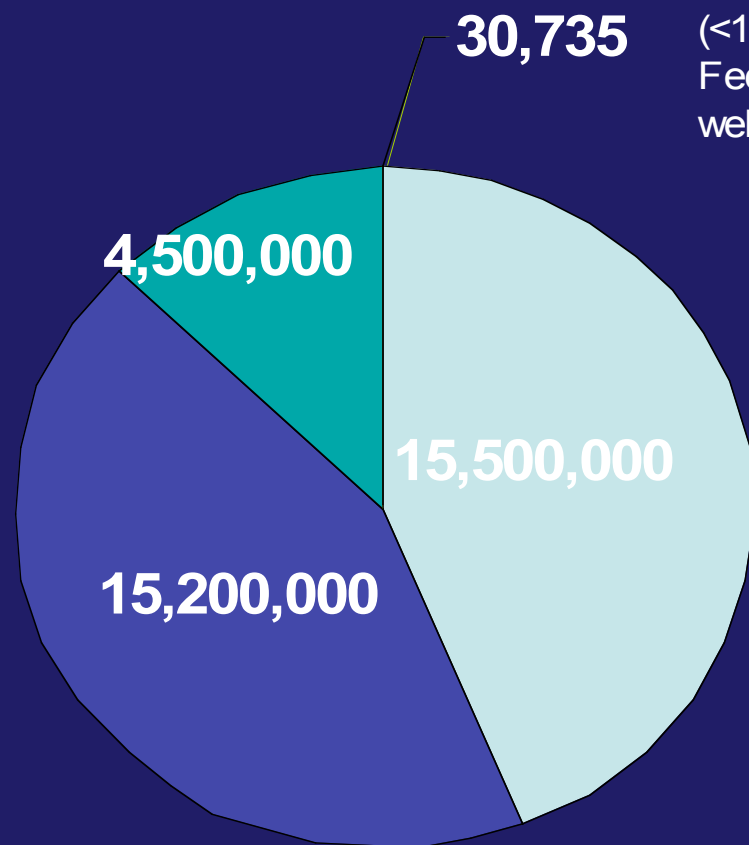

BLM

Utah State Office

Total Utah Federal Mineral Estate

35.2 million acres

(<1%) This calculation is based on 6,047 producing Federal wells with an average of 5 acres disturbance per well

- ☐ Historically Available for Lease
- ☐ Not Available for Leasing
- ☐ Currently Under Lease
- ☐ Land Affected by Oil & Gas Leasing

Utah State Office

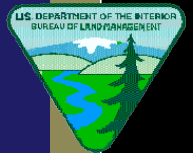

BLM

Facing the Challenges Ahead

BLM

Utah State Office

Into the Future

BLM

Utah State Office

